Advisory No.	2017-06
Title:	Paramedic Credentialing Exam Scoring Change
Issue Date:	June 16, 2017
Effective Date:	September 13, 2017
Supersedes:	n/a	Page:	1 of 1

The Regional Emergency Medical Advisory Committee (REMAC) of New York City is responsible to develop, approve and implement prehospital treatment and transport protocols for use within the five boroughs of the City of New York. The Regional Emergency Medical Advisory Committee (REMAC) of New York City operates under the auspices of Article Thirty of the New York State Public Health Law.

This announcement is to advise all NYC REMAC Paramedic Exam candidates about changes to the scoring method used to determine regional credentialing /re-credentialing. The exam is 120 questions, multiple choice format, of which a total of 20 questions are based on 2 scenarios with 10 questions each. The exam format will remain the same. The 3-hour time limit and a minimum passing grade of 80% will remain the same. Starting September 13th, 2017 all questions will be given equal value in determining overall score. This change in scoring is the result of broader inclusion of test questions that focus on patient assessment and knowledge application.
